In forwarding herewith Correspondence ending with Chennapatna Amildars Wrzee No 102 has the honor to state that there are at present the marginally noted Gold and Silver articles at the Mallur Appramey aswamys temple. The Amildar having reported that they were useless and fit for sale he was asked to sell them. He now brings to notice that proper bids are not procurable, as the Gold and Silver articles have lost their color and therefore recommends that the Gold and the Silver articles weighing Rs: 38-8-- may

	Rs. as P.
Gold weighing 9 Varahas valued at Rs. 4-8-- per Varaha	= 40-8-- for arms a and a Golden "Saraje" for the deity, retaining however, the silver plate weighing Rs: 9-12-0 for the use of the temple.

2. Requests that sanc-tion may be accorded to this arrangement.
3. It is not easy to believe that bids could not be got for Gold and Silver; it only indicates unwillingness to see presents to an Idol, sold.
Such unwillingness in worshippers, if it exists is quite legitimate and the alternative pro -posed is acceptable.
